About JoziHub

JoziHub is a network of tech innovators in Johannesburg, harnessing the power of technology to create sustainable change in South Africa. JoziHub's vision is to be South Africa's leading technology and social business incubator by 2015 and to support products and services that have a deep and sustainable impact on Southern Africa. JoziHub launched in 2013 and currently has over 2800 members.

By bringing great South African minds together, help start great ideas, fostering economic autonomy through community and nurturing creativity and ingenuity, JoziHub aims to ignite national development.

Located at Johannesburg's 44 Stanley Avenue precinct, JoziHub Johannesburg's first tech hub offers a smart and connected environment allowing for group meetings, member workspace, presentations and events. The unique 20 metre THINKPAINT Wall adds to the attraction of the events space for members as well as organisations or groups needing an inspiring brainstorming or strategy session venue.
